

MANZI'S FUN

VALUING WATER

Manzi has a friend who has written a poem. He wants you to help him fill in the rhyming word that goes with the underlined word in every sentence.

You can choose the rhyming word from the words in the box below.

(Note: If you don't understand any of the words ask your parents, teacher or family members to help you find them in the Dictionary or on the internet).

me well way own wisely dream thrive ask way

My friend Manzi has a story to tell and he wants everyone of us to listen ____.

You see Manzi is on a mission and he is not alone, he loves this planet Earth of ours which he calls his ____.

Together with his friends from the Water Wise team, Manzi wants to reach his environmental ____.

Clean water for all is his wonderful task, but how can this be done you might ____?

It is quite simple really as you can see,
 for all that needs to happen really is up to you and ____.

We need to change our own behaviour every single day, and if we can do this it will certainly lead the ____.

We really need to start thinking differently,
 by using the Earth's gifts and buying products ____.

Not wasting or polluting and taking action everyday,
 we can start to live our lives the Water Wise ____.

We need to start respecting this planet which keeps us alive, to look after the Earth's gifts for all of us to ____.

Why don't you write your own poem or draw a picture of why you value water and send it to waterwisersa@gmail.com.

Your poem or drawing stands a chance of winning a Water Wise gift. It also may be shared on our social media platforms. Please remember to include your name, age, email address and a contact number when you send in your poem or drawing.

For more information on being Water Wise please contact 0860 10 10 60 or log onto www.randwater.co.za and click on the Water Wise logo

#WaterWise #RandWater #KnowBetterDoBetter

